THE COMPETITION
For more than 25 years, the Center for Health Law and Policy at Southern Illinois University School of Law, the Department of Medical Humanities at the Southern Illinois University School of Medicine, the American College of Legal Medicine and the American College of Legal Medicine Foundation have sponsored the National Health Law Moot Court Competition. The competition is held annually at the Southern Illinois University School of Law in Carbondale, Illinois. The two-day competition is one of the premier moot court experiences in the nation and attracts teams representing law schools from throughout the country.

COMPETITION INFORMATION
PRIZES: $1,000 first place, $750 second place, $500 each to third place, best brief and best overall oralist, and $250 each to runner-up best brief and best preliminary-round oralist. The American College of Legal Medicine and Center for Health Law and Policy contribute these prize funds.

RECOGNITION: The best brief will be published in an issue of the Journal of Legal Medicine.

DATE: Nov. 3-4, 2017

LOCATION: Southern Illinois University School of Law, 1150 Douglas Drive, Carbondale, IL 62901

ENTRY FORM AND FEES: Entry forms are due June 22. The entry fee of $450 per team or $800 for two teams is due by Aug. 31. Fees must be received by Aug. 31 or your registration will be canceled. Checks or money orders should be made payable to SIU School of Law. NOTE: To pay by credit card, see entry form for instructions.

TEAMS: Up to 32 teams from ABA-accredited law schools or law schools seeking ABA accreditation may participate in the competition. Each participating school may enter one or two teams. If the competition is oversubscribed, the committee reserves the right to place additional teams on a wait list or otherwise limit participation. Each team shall be composed of two or three students, all of whom must be full-time (day or night) law students currently enrolled in a juris doctor program at the time of the competition.

RULES/INFORMATION: The record and the rules will be available and posted on the competition website (law.siu.edu) on Aug. 2. Briefs are due Sept. 21.

“For a quarter-century, the National Health Law Moot Court Competition has given law students the opportunity to develop their advocacy skills while also learning about cutting-edge issues at the intersection of law and medicine. The American College of Legal Medicine is pleased to continue its longstanding co-sponsorship of this event.”

— William C. Hinnant, M.D., J.D., F.C.L.M., President, ALCM 2017-2018

“Since its inception in 1992, the National Health Law Moot Court Competition has provided students an outstanding opportunity to engage in scholarship and advocacy in the field of law and medicine. The SIU School of Medicine’s Department of Medical Humanities is proud to once again co-sponsor this competition.”
