Bose McKinney & Evans Attorneys Named to Top 25 Women and Top 50 2015 Indiana Super Lawyers

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. –The law firm of Bose McKinney & Evans LLP is pleased to announce that three of its attorneys have been named for inclusion in the highest ranks of the 2015 edition of Indiana Super Lawyers®. The firm has two attorneys in the “Top 50: 2015 Indiana Super Lawyers” list: Bryan Babb and Timothy O’Hara. Elizabeth Schuerman was named to the “Top 25: 2015 Women Indiana Super Lawyers” list.

Elizabeth Schuerman is a partner practicing primarily in medical malpractice defense, construction litigation and general litigation. She counsels clients through all aspects of litigation including pursuit negotiation, discovery, mediation and trial. In 2010, Schuerman was named the Indianapolis Bar Association’s 2010 Young Lawyer of the Year. She received her B.A. from Truman State University (2000) and her J.D. from Southern Illinois University (2006, cum laude). Additionally, she has been recognized in a variety of other listings, including Indiana Super Lawyers® – Rising Stars Edition (2010-2013). She received the Leadership in Law Award from Indiana Lawyer in 2012.

Bryan Babb is the chair of the firm’s Appellate Services Group, and a member of the Litigation Group. He is a member of the firm’s Diversity Committee. Before joining the firm, Babb served as a judicial law clerk for Indiana Supreme Court Justice Frank Sullivan, Jr. He is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point (B.S., 1989), Boston University (M.S., 1994), and Indiana University Maurer School of Law – Bloomington (J.D. cum laude, 1999). Babb has been named in the Top 50 Indiana Super Lawyers since 2012 and has been included in the Best Lawyers in America® 2008-2015 for appellate law. In 2014, he was named the Best Lawyers 2014® Indianapolis Appellate Practice Lawyer of the Year.

Tim O’Hara is a partner in the Family Law and Litigation Groups. With more than 30 years in the practice of law, he guides clients through high-profile and complex divorces, advising clients on child custody issues, trust fund management, parenting time guidelines, child support guidelines, multi-state custodial arrangements, pre-nuptual agreements, adoptions and more. Additionally, he represents individual clients in commercial and personal litigation, including real estate contractual disputes, and employment litigation cases, bankruptcy proceedings, shareholder disputes, restaurant/hospitality issues, antitrust allegations, mortgage fraud, foreclosures, and civil and white collar criminal cases. He received an A.B. from John Carroll University and his J.D. from the University of Mississippi. O'Hara is a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America, and also included in the following listings: The Best Lawyers in America 2007–2015 (Commercial Litigation and Family Law); Indiana Super Lawyers 2004–2015 (Family Law); and Top 50 Indiana Super Lawyers® 2012–2015. He is AV Peer Review rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

Super Lawyers recognizes outstanding attorneys in more than 70 areas of practice using a rigorous, multiphase selection process that considers 12 separate indicators of peer recognition, professional achievement and high ethical standards. Founded in 1990, Law & Politics has been publishing annual Super Lawyers lists since 1991.
