THE COMPETITION
Southern Illinois University School of Law, along with supporting sponsors the Department of Medical Humanities at the Southern Illinois University School of Medicine, the American College of Legal Medicine, and the American College of Legal Medicine Foundation, is pleased to announce the 2019 National Health Law Moot Court Competition. For over 25 years, the Competition has been held annually at Southern Illinois University School of Law in Carbondale. The two-day event is one of the premier moot court experiences in the nation and attracts teams representing law schools from throughout the country.

COMPETITION INFORMATION
PRIZES: $1,000 first place, $750 second place, $500 each to third place, best brief and best overall oralist, and $250 each to runner-up best brief and best preliminary-round oralist. The American College of Legal Medicine Foundation and Southern Illinois University School of Law contribute these prize funds.

RECOGNITION: The best brief will be published in an issue of the Journal of Legal Medicine.

DATE: November 1-2, 2019

LOCATION: Southern Illinois University School of Law, 1150 Douglas Drive, Carbondale, IL 62901

ENTRY FORM AND FEES: Entry forms are due June 20. The entry fee of $475 per team or $900 for two teams is due by August 29. Fees must be received by August 29 or your registration will be canceled. Checks or money orders should be made payable to SIU School of Law. NOTE: To pay by credit card, see entry form for instructions.

TEAMS: Up to 28 teams from ABA-accredited law schools or law schools seeking ABA accreditation may participate in the competition. Each participating school may enter one or two teams. If the competition is oversubscribed, the committee reserves the right to place additional teams on a wait list or otherwise limit participation. Each team shall be composed of two or three students, all of whom must be full-time (day or night) law students currently enrolled in a juris doctor program at the time of the competition.

RULES/INFORMATION: The record and the rules will be available and posted on the competition website on August 1. Briefs are due September 19.

“Having participated as a judge in this competition for many years, I can speak first hand to the extraordinary experience this competition provides to students interested in health law and oral advocacy. I am proud to represent my alma mater this coming year as President of the American College of Legal Medicine and continue the ACLM’s support of this outstanding competition. I look forward to seeing you in Carbondale!”

— Dr. Veling Tsai, J.D., M.D.

“Since its inception in 1992, the National Health Law Moot Court Competition has provided students an outstanding opportunity to engage in scholarship and advocacy in the field of law and medicine. The SIU School of Medicine’s Department of Medical Humanities is proud to once again co-sponsor this competition.”
