2021 National Health Law Moot Court Competition

THE COMPETITION
Southern Illinois University School of Law, along with supporting sponsors the American College of Legal Medicine and the American Health Law Association, is pleased to announce the 2021 National Health Law Moot Court Competition. The Competition is held annually at Southern Illinois University School of Law in Carbondale. The two-day event is one of the premier moot court experiences in the nation and attracts teams representing law schools from throughout the country.

COMPETITION INFORMATION
PRIZES: $1,000 first place, $750 second place, $500 each to third place, best brief and best overall oralist, and $250 each to runner-up best brief and best preliminary-round oralist. Participants will also receive prize packages sponsored by the American Health Law Association and the American College of Legal Medicine.

RECOGNITION: The best brief will be published in an issue of the Journal of Legal Medicine.

DATE: November 5-6, 2021

LOCATION: Southern Illinois University School of Law, 1150 Douglas Drive, Carbondale, IL 62901. There is a backup plan for a virtual Competition if conditions require it.

ENTRY FORM AND FEES: Entry forms are due June 24. The entry fee of $475 ($300 if virtual) per team or $900 ($600 if virtual) for two teams is due by September 2 or your registration will be canceled. Checks or money orders should be made payable to SIU School of Law. NOTE: To pay by credit card, see entry form for instructions.

TEAMS: Up to 28 teams from ABA-accredited law schools or law schools seeking ABA accreditation may participate in the competition. Each participating school may enter one or two teams. If the competition is oversubscribed, the committee reserves the right to place additional teams on a wait list or otherwise limit participation. Each team shall be composed of two or three students, all of whom must be full-time (day or night) law students currently enrolled in a juris doctor program at the time of the competition.

RULES/INFORMATION: The record and the rules will be available and posted on the competition website on August 5. Briefs are due September 16.

“The American College of Legal Medicine is pleased to once again co-sponsor the National Health Law Moot Court Competition. Every year, the competition is a highlight of the ACLM’s mission to promote understanding of important issues at the intersection of law and medicine. I look forward to representing the ACLM at the competition and observing the high level of advocacy the students bring to the competition.”

— Joe Piorkowski
President, American College of Legal Medicine

“This is the first year that the American Health Law Competition will be co-sponsoring the National Health Moot Court Competition and we could not be more pleased to be a part of this outstanding event. We look forward to working with SIU and the ACLM to support the incredible student advocates as they address cutting-edge issues of health law and policy.”

— David Cade
CEO, American Health Law Association
