TRUSTS AND ESTATES
LAW 531
Fall 2019

Professor Patricia Hoke
Monday and Wednesday 5:30 – 6:45 p.m. e-mail: patricia.hoke@siu.edu

We will be using Wills, Trusts, and Estates, Dukeminier, Sitkoff, Tenth Edition, 2017. I will also be referring to Illinois statutes which you can find in the Illinois Probate Act, published by West, and the Uniform Probate Code and Uniform Trust Code which you can find in Uniform Trust and Estate Statutes, published by Foundation Press. You may also use Westlaw or Lexis.

The goal of this class is to provide you with the opportunity to become familiar with and identify the drafting, administration, and ethical concepts and issues which arise in the practice of wills, trust, and estate law. You are expected to:

1. learn to read statutes governing wills and trusts,
2. research and analyze case law regarding wills and trust,
3. apply the statutes and case law to specific problems,
4. explain both orally and in writing how the statutes and case law apply to specific problems,
5. produce well written, logical, professional documents.

Your initiative and commitment to adequate preparation and active participation in this class will be required in order for you to accomplish this goal. You are responsible for your own work, which must be done independently of other students.

I would suggest that when you are preparing for class that you read the entire case from one of the case reporters in addition to going over the portions selected by the authors. This will not only give you more experience reading complete cases but will also give you a better understanding of the case we are discussing.

You should take your own notes and prepare your own outline. I am aware that outlines from prior classes and other sources are available but I caution you that they may not be well-prepared or appropriate for this course. You will absorb and retain the information from this class better if you do your own work.
You are permitted 6 absences during this course.

Attendance will be taken during each class. You are responsible for insuring that your attendance is recorded. If you did not sign the attendance sheet, you should check with me prior to leaving class to be sure your attended is recorded. A failure to sign the attendance sheet will be counted as an absence.

Please come to class prepared to participate in class discussions and remain for the entire class period. It is disturbing to the remainder of the class for students to leave the classroom and then come back in during class. If you need to leave the classroom for some reason, please do so quietly and do not reenter the classroom until the class is over.

If you come to class and are not prepared when called on, you will not receive points for attendance for that day.

Your grade will be based on the following factors:

10% - Class attendance and participation
50% - Written assignments and quizzes
40% - Final exam

Written assignments are due at the beginning of class. You may email them to me so long as it reaches my email prior to class. I do not accept late assignments. Quizzes will not be announced in advance, will be conducted during class and will be turned in at that time.

You are not permitted to audio- or video-tape this class without my prior permission. If you have some specific need that requires audio- or video-taping, please discuss this with me in sufficient time to make arrangements for taping.

You should check TWEN prior to each class as I will occasionally add additional material to be referenced or prepared.

As an adjunct professor, I do not have regular office hours. You may reach me by e-mail at: patricia.hoke@siu.edu. My cell phone number is 618-527-8314 and you may leave a message there also. I will be available after class and at other times by appointment.

The American Bar Association standards for accrediting law schools contain a formula for calculating the amount of work that constitutes one credit hour. According to ABA Standard 310(b)(1), “a ‘credit hour’ is an amount of work that reasonably approximates: (1) not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and two hours of out-of-class student work per week for fifteen weeks, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time.” This a 3-credit hour class, meaning that we will spend two 75-minute blocks of time together each week. The amount of assigned reading and out of class preparation should take you about 3 hours for each class session and 6 hours for the week. All told, applying the ABA standard to the number of credits offered for this class, you should plan on spending a total of 9 hours per week minimum on course-related work.

Emergency Procedures. Southern Illinois University Carbondale is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for study and work. Because some health and safety circumstances are beyond our control, we ask that you become familiar with the SIUC Emergency Response Plan and Building Emergency Response Team (BERT) program. Emergency response information is available on posters in buildings on campus, available on BERT’s website at www.bert.siu.edu, Department of Safety’s website www.dps.siu.edu (disaster drop down) and in Emergency Response Guideline pamphlet. Know how to respond to each type of emergency.

Instructors will provide guidance and direction to students in the classroom in the event of an emergency affecting your location. It is important that you follow these instructions and stay with your instructor during an evacuation or sheltering emergency. The Building Emergency Response Team will provide assistance to your instructor in evacuating the building or sheltering within the facility.

Disability Policy. Disability Support Services provides the required academic and programmatic support services to students with permanent and temporary disabilities. DSS provides centralized coordination and referral services. To utilize DSS services, students must go to the DSS to open cases. The process involves interviews, reviews of student-supplied documentation, and completion of Disability Accommodation Agreements.
http://disabilityservices.siu.edu/. Upon completion of a Disability Accommodation Agreement with DSS, students should bring the agreement to the School of Law’s Registrar’s Office to ensure the School of Law provides the proper classroom and examination accommodations.

Saluki Cares. The purpose of Saluki Cares is to develop, facilitate and coordinate a university-wide program of care and support for students in any type of distress – physical, emotional, financial, or personal. By working closely with faculty, staff, students and their families, SIU will continue to display a culture of care and demonstrate to our students and their families that they are an important part of the community at the School of Law, Assistant Dean Judi Ray is also available to help students access university resources. Her email is judiray@siu.edu, and her phone number is 618-453-3135.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY ~ Undergraduate only
Students who officially register for a session must officially withdraw from that registration in a timely manner to avoid being charged as well as receiving a failing grade for those classes. An official withdrawal must be initiated by the student, or on behalf of the student through the academic unit, and be processed by the Registrar’s Office. For the proper procedures to follow when dropping courses and when withdrawing from SIU visit: https://registrar.siu.edu/students/withdrawal.php

INCOMPLETE POLICY ~ Undergraduate only
An INC grade may be assigned when, for reasons beyond their control, students engaged in passing work are unable to complete all class assignments for the course. An INC must be changed to a completed grade within one full semester (undergraduates), and one full year (graduate students), from the close of the term in which the course was taken or graduation, whichever occurs first. Should the student fail to complete the remaining course requirements within the time period designated, the incomplete will be converted to a grade of F and such grade will be computed in the student's grade point average. For more information visit: https://registrar.siu.edu/grades/incomplete.php

REPEAT POLICY
An undergraduate student may, for the purpose of raising a grade, enroll in a course for credit more than once. For students receiving a letter grade of A, B, C, D or F, the course repetition must occur at Southern Illinois University Carbondale. Effective for courses taken Summer 2013 or later, only the most recent (last) grade will be calculated in the overall GPA and count toward hours earned. This policy will be applied to all transferrable credit that only the last grade will be used to calculate grade point average. Only those courses taken at the same institution are considered repeats under this policy. See full policy at https://registrar.siu.edu/students/repeatclasses.php
