COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to acquaint the student with the fundamentals of trial advocacy. To that end, this course proceeds chronologically through the span of litigating a case – covering the decision and initiation of a lawsuit or charge, the significance of case analysis, pretrial motions, motion hearings, opening statements, direct examinations, cross examinations, and closing arguments. This course focuses significant attention on the development of oral advocacy skills, written analysis, and the use of PowerPoint and other courtroom technologies.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

Consistent with the course description, students will be provided with opportunities to test and expand their comprehension of trial proceedings through a variety of facets, including: lecture and notetaking, regimented activities conducted during class, motion hearings, and a mock trial. Students will translate their conceptual understanding of trial advocacy into practical competencies by participating in weekly class exercises – culminating with a mock trial. Accordingly, by the end of the course, each student should exhibit the following practical skills:

1. The analytical ability to discern nuanced hypothetical fact patterns, conduct legal research, and develop a written case analysis;
2. The analytical ability and comprehension to participate in a Motion Hearing;
3. The analytical ability and comprehension to participate in a Trial;
4. The written and oral ability to advocate for either a plaintiff/prosecution or defense position;
5. The intellectual and improvisational ability to both make (and respond to) objections.

WORKLOAD EXPECTATIONS

The American Bar Association standards for accrediting law schools contain a formula for calculating the amount of work that constitutes one credit hour. According to the American Bar Association Standard 310(b)(1), “a “credit hour” is an amount of work that reasonably approximates: (1) “not less than one hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and two hours of out-of-class student work per week for fifteen weeks, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time.” This is a 3 credit hour class. In-class instruction time will total 150 minutes per week every Thursday [please note: the ABA allows for the interpretation that 50 minute sections qualify as an “hour” of classroom instruction]). The amount of assigned reading and out of class preparation should take a student approximately 6 hours per week. Accordingly, applying the ABA standard to the number of credits offered for this class, students should plan on spending a total of 9 hours per week (3 in class and 6 preparing for class) on course-related work.

Please note that the nature of this course is designed to simulate a realistic trial environment within class. Accordingly, students should be prepared for some variance on the time periods of classes. Sufficient notice will be provided to students but students should expect to attend some class periods with an earlier ending time while other classes will end later than the scheduled time period of 9:00 p.m. The Final Jury Trial is expected to be a four hour class.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND METHOD OF EVALUATION

There will be 100 total points provided for in this course. Pursuant to law school rules, the mean grade point average for a type of course such as LAW 537 can vary from 2.8 to 3.2. Southern Illinois University School of Law Rules, Art. III, § 1, §§ b(iv). The evaluation criteria will be based on a curve (as shown by the Assessments below). Students are expected to produce the following work product for the purposes of evaluation:

- Advocacy Modules (Required for the Student to Participate in Graded Exercises) – Each advocacy module has an explanatory memorandum with evaluation criteria and specific assignments. If a student misses class on the day of an advocacy exercise (for any reason), the student must still submit that exercise via a recorded submission before the deadline of that Advocacy Module.

- Preliminary Hearing and Bond Reduction Hearing (20% of grade total) – Students will be required to participate in a Preliminary Hearing and Bond Reduction Hearing and demonstrate the skills developed in class. The evaluation criteria for the Preliminary Hearing and Bond Reduction Hearing are as follows:
  - Best-in-Class (20 points). The student is prepared and provides an exceptional performance — considerably and objectively exemplary. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only one student may receive an Elite Rating.
  - Exemplary (18 points). The student is prepared and submits a high-level performance that satisfies the evaluation criteria and is noticeably and objectively outstanding. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only two students may receive an Outstanding Rating.
  - Above Average (16 points). The student is prepared and submits a performance that meets the evaluation criteria and is objectively better than a typical student submission. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only two students may receive an Above Average Rating.
Sufficient (14 points). The student is prepared and submits a performance that meets most of the evaluation criteria and is typical of an average student submission.

Inadequate (12 points). The student is prepared but provides underdeveloped work product that meets some, but not all, of the evaluation criteria.

Deficient (10 points and below). The student is unprepared and provide inadequate work product that fails to meet most of the evaluation criteria.

- It is not necessary for the professor to give any Inadequate or Deficient Evaluations. Furthermore, the professor reserves the right to deviate from the aforementioned guideline standard and impose grades accordingly when rare situations merit deviation.

Motion Hearing and Jury Instruction Conference (20% of grade total) – Students will be required to participate in a Motion Hearing and a Jury Instruction Conference and demonstrate the skills developed in class. The evaluation criteria for the Motion Hearing and Jury Instruction Conference are as follows:

- Best-in-Class (20 points). The student is prepared and provides an exceptional performance—considerably and objectively exemplary. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only one student may receive an Elite Rating.

- Exemplary (18 points). The student is prepared and submits a high-level performance that satisfies the evaluation criteria and is noticeably and objectively outstanding. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only two students may receive an Outstanding Rating.

- Above Average (16 points). The student is prepared and submits a performance that meets the evaluation criteria and is objectively better than a typical student submission. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only two students may receive an Above Average Rating.

- Sufficient (14 points). The student is prepared and submits a performance that meets most of the evaluation criteria and is typical of an average student submission.

- Inadequate (12 points). The student is prepared but provides underdeveloped work product that meets some, but not all, of the evaluation criteria.

- Deficient (10 points and below). The student is unprepared and provide inadequate work product that fails to meet most of the evaluation criteria.

- It is not necessary for the professor to give any Inadequate or Deficient Evaluations. Furthermore, the professor reserves the right to deviate from the aforementioned guideline standard and impose grades accordingly when rare situations merit deviation.

Jury Trial (60% of grade total) – Students will be required to participate in a Jury Trial and demonstrate the skills developed in class. The evaluation criteria for the Jury Trial are as follows:

- Best-in-Class (60 points). The student is prepared and provides an exceptional performance—considerably and objectively exemplary. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only one student may receive an Elite Rating.

- Exemplary (54 points). The student is prepared and submits a high-level performance that satisfies the evaluation criteria and is noticeably and objectively outstanding. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only two students may receive an Outstanding Rating.

- Above Average (50 points). The student is prepared and submits a performance that meets the evaluation criteria and is objectively better than a typical student submission. Unless exceptional circumstances occur, only two students may receive an Above Average Rating.

- Sufficient (46 points). The student is prepared and submits a performance that meets most of the evaluation criteria and is typical of an average student submission.

- Inadequate (38 points). The student is prepared but provides underdeveloped work product that meets some, but not all, of the evaluation criteria.

➢ Deficient (30 points and below). The student is unprepared and provide inadequate work product that fails to meet most of the evaluation criteria.
  o It is not necessary for the professor to give any Inadequate or Deficient Evaluations. Furthermore, the professor reserves the right to deviate from the aforementioned guideline standard and impose grades accordingly when rare situations merit deviation.

COURSE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE

Advocacy courses, by design, require the student’s presence. Consequently, students are expected to attend every class due to the nature of the course. Attendance is mandatory and will be taken each class period at the beginning of the class (or at such time is reasonable for the logical flow of classroom instruction). Attendance will be taken in class and the records will be preserved for one year. A student who misses all or part of a class will have his/her absence counted as a full absence. Class attendance is calculated from the first scheduled class meeting through the last scheduled class meeting. Nevertheless, occasional absences may be unavoidable (due to illness, personal issues, or co-curricular obligations [such as law school competitions]). If a student misses a class in an Advocacy Module was assigned, the student must still submit his/her module via a recorded submission to either D2L (or if the file format is too large, my email) before the deadline of that class.

LAPTOPS AND OTHER ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Laptop computers and other similar devices may be used throughout this course and are encouraged if it helps the student efficiently learn. If any student is found to have used such an electronic device inappropriately (i.e. any use other than classroom utilization), that student will be marked absent for the day and banned from bringing any electronic device in class for the rest of the semester (absent mitigating circumstances as determined by the professor).

STUDENT CONDUCT

Students shall comply with all the listed provisions of the governing regulations of Southern Illinois University School of Law pertaining to student conduct (or the University-wide equivalent, if no such policy exists within the School of Law regulations for specific instances). Incidents of plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty may result in any disciplinary action pursuant to the governing regulations of Southern Illinois University School of Law (or the University-wide equivalent, if no such policy exists within the School of Law regulations for specific instances).

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

Southern Illinois University Carbondale is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for study and work. Because some health and safety circumstances are beyond our control, we ask that you become familiar with the SIUC Emergency Response Plan and Building Emergency Response Team (BERT) program. Emergency response information is available on posters in buildings on campus, available on BERT’s website at www.bert.siu.edu, Department of Safety’s website www.dps.siu.edu (disaster drop down) and in Emergency Response Guideline pamphlet. Know how to respond to each type of emergency. Instructors will provide guidance and direction to students in the classroom in the event of an emergency affecting your location. It is important that you follow these instructions and stay with your instructor during an evacuation or sheltering emergency. The Building Emergency Response Team will provide assistance to your instructor in evacuating the building or sheltering within the facility.

DISABILITY POLICY
Disability Support Services provides the required academic and programmatic support services to students with permanent and temporary disabilities. DSS provides centralized coordination and referral services. To utilize DSS services, students must come to the DSS to open cases. The process involves interviews, reviews of student-supplied documentation, and completion of Disability Accommodation Agreements. http://disabilityservices.siu.edu/. Upon completion of a Disability Accommodation Agreement with DSS, students should bring the agreement to the School of Law Registrar’s Office to ensure the School of Law provides the proper classroom and examination accommodations.

SALUKI CARES
The purpose of Saluki Cares is to develop, facilitate and coordinate a university-wide program of care and support for students in any type of distress—physical, emotional, financial, or personal. By working closely with faculty, staff, students and their families, SIU will continue to display a culture of care and demonstrate to our students and their families that they are an important part of the community. For Information on Saluki Cares: (618) 453-5714, or siucares@siu.edu, http://salukicares.siu.edu/index.html. At the School of Law, Assistant Dean Judi Ray is also available to help students access university resources. Her email is judiray@siu.edu, and her phone number is 618-453-3135.

NOTICE OF RECORDING POLICIES
Classes will be recorded by the IT Department for this course. Students are prohibited from the audio and video recording of classes taught within this course. Special arrangements for recording may be made with the professor and IT department in advance under exceptional circumstances.

COVID-19
SIUC’s policy on face masks and social distancing is consistent with the guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Illinois Department of Public Health. For up-to-date information, students, faculty, and staff should visit SIUC’s COVID website (siu.edu/coronavirus), which includes the Saluki Safety Plan. People can also send an email to pandemicinfo@siu.edu.

MONKEYPOX
SIUC is monitoring the developments with monkeypox. Monkeypox can affect anyone regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation, and we ask that our campus community remember our commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion. Students who suspect they may have monkeypox may visit Student Health Services for evaluation. Additional information can be found on the CDC website.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY – Undergraduate only
Students who officially register for a session must officially withdraw from that registration in a timely manner to avoid being charged as well as receiving a failing grade for those classes. An official withdrawal must be initiated by the student, or on behalf of the student through the academic unit, and be processed by the Registrar’s office. For the proper procedures to follow when dropping courses and when withdrawing from SIU visit: http://registrar.siu.edu/students/withdrawal.php.

SIU’S EARLY WARNING INTERVENTION PROGRAM (EWIP)
Students enrolled in courses participating in SIU’s Early Warning Intervention Program might be contacted by University staff during a semester. More information can be found at the Core Curriculum’s webpage: https://corecurriculum.siu.edu/for-faculty/.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES
We ask that you become familiar with Emergency Preparedness at SIU. Emergency response information is available on posters in buildings on campus, on the Emergency Preparedness at SIU website, and through text and email alerts. To register for alerts visit: http://emergency.siu.edu/.

DISABILITY POLICY. SIU Carbondale is committed to providing an inclusive and accessible experience for all students with disabilities. Disability Support Services coordinates the implementation of accommodations. If you think you may be eligible for accommodations but have not yet obtained approval, please contact DSS immediately at 618-453-5738 or disabilityservices.siu.edu. You may request accommodations at any time, but timely requests help to ensure accommodations are in place when needed. Accommodations and services are determined through an interactive process with students and may involve consideration of specific course design and learning objectives in consultation with faculty. Upon completion of a Disability Accommodation Agreement with DSS, students should bring the agreements for each course to the School of Law Registrar’s Office to ensure the School of Law provides the proper classroom and examination accommodations.
