THE COMPETITION

Southern Illinois University School of Law, along with supporting sponsors the Department of Medical Humanities at the Southern Illinois University School of Medicine, the American College of Legal Medicine, and the American College of Legal Medicine Foundation, is pleased to announce the 2020 National Health Law Moot Court Competition. For over 25 years, the Competition has been held annually at Southern Illinois University School of Law in Carbondale. The two-day event is one of the premier moot court experiences in the nation and attracts teams representing law schools from throughout the country.

COMPETITION INFORMATION

PRIZES: $1,000 first place, $750 second place, $500 each to third place, best brief and best overall oralist, and $250 each to runner-up best brief and best preliminary-round oralist. The American College of Legal Medicine Foundation and Southern Illinois University School of Law contribute these prize funds.

RECOGNITION: The best brief will be published in an issue of the Journal of Legal Medicine.

DATE: November 6-7, 2020

LOCATION: Southern Illinois University School of Law, 1150 Douglas Drive, Carbondale, IL 62901

ENTRY FORM AND FEES: Entry forms are due June 25. The entry fee of $475 per team or $900 for two teams is due by September 3. Fees must be received by September 3 or your registration will be canceled. Checks or money orders should be made payable to SIU School of Law. NOTE: To pay by credit card, see entry form for instructions.

TEAMS: Up to 28 teams from ABA-accredited law schools or law schools seeking ABA accreditation may participate in the competition. Each participating school may enter one or two teams. If the competition is oversubscribed, the committee reserves the right to place additional teams on a wait list or otherwise limit participation. Each team shall be composed of two or three students, all of whom must be full-time (day or night) law students currently enrolled in a juris doctor program at the time of the competition.

RULES/INFORMATION: The record and the rules will be available and posted on the competition website on August 6. Briefs are due September 17.

“The American College of Legal Medicine is pleased to once again co-sponsor the National Health Law Moot Court Competition. Every year, the competition is a highlight of the ACLM’s mission to promote understanding of important issues at the intersection of law and medicine. I look forward to representing the ACLM and being once again impressed by the high level of advocacy the students bring to the competition.”

— Monique A. Anawis, MD, JD, FCLM
President, American College of Legal Medicine

“Since its inception in 1992, the National Health Law Moot Court Competition has provided students an outstanding opportunity to engage in scholarship and advocacy in the field of law and medicine. The SIU School of Medicine’s Department of Medical Humanities is proud to once again co-sponsor this competition.”

— Christine Y. Todd, M.D.
Chair, Department of Medical Humanities
SIU School of Medicine
