Rules Relating to Academic Standing, Probation, and Withdrawal

[Excerpted from School of Law Rules for AY 2020–2021
as amended by special rules related to COVID-19.]

ARTICLE III - ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

2. Good Standing, Probation, Dismissal, and Voluntary Withdrawal [amended 4/15/2008, effective June 1, 2008; amended 4/20/10]

(a) Good Standing and Dismissal at the End of the Second Full Semester. At the end of the second full semester (or the equivalent for a part-time student), a student with a cumulative GPA of 2.300 or above shall be considered to be in “good standing” and eligible to continue studies at the School of Law. A student whose cumulative GPA is less than 2.200 shall be dismissed from the School of Law, without right of petition or appeal.

Good standing will be determined based on all courses in which a final grade has actually been assigned.

For a student whose second full semester was Spring 2020, this determination will be made at the end of the student’s third full semester.

(b) Academic Probation at the End of the Second Full Semester.

(i) At the end of the second full semester (or the equivalent for a part-time student), a student whose cumulative GPA is at least 2.200 but less than 2.300 is eligible to continue studies at the School of Law, but is not in good standing. Such student shall be placed on academic probation and shall be promptly notified of such action, which notice shall include a copy of this rule.

For a student whose second full semester was Spring 2020, this determination will be made at the end of the student’s third full semester.

(ii) A student on academic probation must:

(A) prior to the start of the next full semester, meet with the Associate Dean;

(B) prior to the start of the next full semester, meet with the Director of Academic Success to develop a plan of remediation;
(C) achieve a GPA of at least 2.300 in each of the next two full semesters;

(D) achieve a cumulative GPA of at least 2.300 at the end of the student’s fourth full semester; and

(E) take at least 12 hours per semester.

(iii) A student who fails to meet any of the conditions set forth in the preceding subsection (ii) shall be dismissed from the School of Law without right of petition or appeal.

(c) Good Standing and Dismissal at the End of the Fourth Full Semester. At the end of the fourth full semester, a student with a cumulative GPA of 2.300 will be considered in “good standing” and eligible to continue their studies at the School of Law. A student whose cumulative GPA is less than 2.250 shall be dismissed from the School of Law, without right of petition or appeal.

Good standing will be determined based on all courses in which a final grade has actually been assigned.

For a student whose fourth full semester was Spring 2020, this determination will be made at the end of the student’s fifth full semester.

(d) Academic Probation at the End of the Fourth Full Semester.

(i) At the end of the fourth full semester, a student whose cumulative GPA is at least 2.250 but less than 2.300, and whose GPA was 2.300 or above at the end of the second full semester, is eligible to continue studies at the School of Law, but is not in good standing. Such student shall be placed on academic probation and shall be promptly notified of such action, which notice shall include a copy of this rule.

For a student whose fourth full semester was Spring 2020, this determination will be made at the end of the student’s fifth full semester.

(ii) A student on academic probation must, prior to the start of the next full semester:

(A) meet with the Associate Dean; and

(B) meet with the Director of Academic Success to develop a plan of remediation.
(iii) A student who fails to meet either of the conditions set forth in the preceding subsection (ii) shall be dismissed from the School of Law without right of petition or appeal.

(e) Voluntary Withdrawal from the Law School.

Only students who meet the following requirements may withdraw voluntarily from all courses at the School of Law and return without having to reapply for admission to the School of Law. Voluntary withdrawal is also subject to all University requirements and deadlines, as well as Rule III.5(f)(iv) (Deadline for Program Changes).

(i) Students Who Have Not Yet Completed Two Full Semesters

(A) General Rule. A student who has not yet completed two full semesters may voluntarily withdraw from the School of Law and may return without petition if the student does so within 15 months following the date of withdrawal. If more than 15 months have elapsed since the student’s withdrawal, the student may return only by petitioning the Dean, which petition shall be freely granted if justice so requires.

(B) Completion of All First-Year Courses Required. A student who voluntarily withdraws from the Law School before completion of two full semesters must, upon readmission, complete all required first-year courses before being permitted to take upper-level courses.

(C) Retaking First-Year Courses after Withdrawal. If a student withdraws from the Law School prior to completing two full semesters and has been assigned a final grade in any first year course, or all assignments in the course have been completed but a final grade has not been assigned, the student may not, upon readmission, re-take any such course prior to completing two full semesters.

(ii) Students Who Have Completed at Least Two Full Semesters

(A) Students in Good Standing. A student who has completed at least two full semesters and who is in good standing at the time of withdrawal may voluntarily withdraw from the School of Law and may return without petition if the student does so within 15 months following the date of withdrawal. If more than 15 months have elapsed since the student’s withdrawal, the student may return only by petitioning the Dean, which petition shall be freely granted if justice so requires.
(B) Students on Academic Probation at Time of Withdrawal. A student who has completed at least two full semesters and who is on academic probation under either Rule III.2(b) or III.2(d) at the time of withdrawal may voluntarily withdraw from the School of Law and may return without petition if the student does so within 15 months following the date of withdrawal. If more than 15 months have elapsed since the student’s withdrawal, the student may return only by petitioning the Dean, which petition shall be freely granted if justice so requires. Any student who is on academic probation at the time such student voluntarily withdraws must, upon readmission, continue to satisfy the conditions of probation to which the student was subject prior to withdrawal.

(f) Students Matriculating at the School of Law Before August 1, 2010. For all students who matriculated at the School of Law before August 1, 2010, academic good standing, eligibility to continue study at the School of Law, graduation eligibility, withdrawal, and any other related matters not addressed by these Rules shall be determined under the Rules of the Southern Illinois University School of Law for Academic Year 2009–10 last amended February 16, 2010.
