

CIVIL PRACTICE LEGAL CLINIC

LAW 673 - SPRING 2024 SYLLABUS

Faculty:

Assistant Professor Dale Aschemann

Legal Clinic - Room 177

Class – Room 164

1150 Douglas Drive

Phone: 618-534-1764 (cell)

Office phone: 618-536-4423; 618-453-8797

email: dale.aschemann@siu.edu

OFFICE HOURS: Monday thru Friday, 8:00-11:00 am and 1:00-4:00 pm when not in court or attending site visits. If you attend office hours for any reason (or if seeing Linda for any reason), please be equipped with a notebook and pen for notetaking purposes.

CLINIC STUDENT ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION: See documents contained in the Civil Practice Clinic Handbook.

LEGAL CLINIC STUDENTS REQUIRED TO ATTEND ALL CLASSES. Should you have a compelling reason and need to miss class, please discuss this with Professor Aschemann before missing the class.

CLASS MEETING TIME AND LOCATION: Monday 1:30-2:45 in Room 164.

SUGGESTION ON READING ASSIGNMENTS: Please consider reading the first two weeks of assignments at the beginning of the semester rather than waiting until they are assigned. Then, prior to each class review the reading materials before we have the class discussion on that topic. Those reading assignments cover the most basic legal issues you're likely to address in the clinic and you are likely to have clients with legal needs that are covered by these assignments.

STAFF MEETINGS: Each class will begin with a staff meeting. During staff meetings, we will discuss case assignments, legal issues, scheduling, and we will devote time to law office practice topics and special projects. If you encounter any issues or problems (scheduling, difficult client, etc.), please share that during the staff meeting. This presents a good opportunity to share experiences with your classmates and discuss options to address the issue.

CLASS EXPECTATIONS:

Students are expected to take notes during class. You may do this with a computer. If computers are present in the classroom, they are authorized exclusively for taking notes during the current class. Emailing, internet searches, doing other classwork, etc. is prohibited.

This class involves interaction with clients. Please dress appropriately when in their presence.

When you attend a site visit, you are required to take interview notes regardless of whether you are conducting the interview. Sharing your notes with the interviewer can be a great assistance.

In advance of client meetings, it is a best practice to print and closely proof documents the day before the meeting. Time management and attention to detail are key skills in this clinic.

Two things must be accomplished by 4:00 p.m on Friday each week: 1) You must update the master spreadsheet with respect to your caseload and 2) email your time sheets to Professor Aschemann and Office Manager Linda Clendenin. When you have a site visit on Friday afternoon, you may update the spreadsheet and email your time sheet on the following Monday by 4:00 p.m. If you have not emailed your time sheets by the appropriate time, you are not entitled to credit for the time contained in the tardy timesheet. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS TO THIS RULE.

HOURS REQUIRED:

The Clinic is graded on a modified Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory scale (S+, S, U). To complete the course for 3 academic credits according to ABA Rule 310, students must complete 127.5 class/clinic hours. We will spend one 75-minute block of time together each week. The classroom portion, in concert with the time spent on assigned reading for class, accounts for one credit hour (42.5 hours). You do not need to record the time related to the doctrinal class or reading assignments. You do, however, need to maintain a time sheet for the remaining 85 hours (2 credit hours) of clinic work. Excluding finals week, we will meet over the course of 14 weeks. With that in mind, students should expect to turn in a timesheet reflecting slightly more than 6 hours per week (85 divided by 14 equals 6.07 hours per week). The time recorded should be any time spent on clinic matters unrelated to the doctrinal class and reading. This would include, but is not limited to, client interviews of any kind, drafting, travel to and from site visits, the site visits themselves, discussion of client matters with clinic staff, and any preparation time including proofing documents and making copies.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES: [Please also see Clinic Missions and Goals for Students and Mission Statement located in Civil Practice Clinic Handbook (tab 2).

1. To provide basic skills training and professionalism training to law students who are engaged in the supervised practice of law serving persons 60 years of age and older in a 13-county area of Southern Illinois.
2. To provide instruction in substantive areas of the law which are commonly encountered in serving older clients in rural communities.

3. To expose law students to the practice and the concept of service to the indigent elderly so that they develop an appreciation for the need for pro bono legal activities after they are out of school and in practice.
4. To provide basic legal services with special attention to the legal needs of the most frail and needy elderly and elderly minorities who are traditionally deprived of the services of an attorney due to socioeconomic factors, including poverty and isolation.
5. Professional identity, bias, cross-cultural competency, and anti-racism:
From: DEI Learning Objectives - Diversity Equity Inclusion - Library Guides at Manhattanville College \(libguides.com\)

Students will be able to:

- “critique structures of power and institutions from the standpoint of embedded privilege and social norms.
- interpret how external factors influence identity, and the intersection of one’s multiple identities.
- identify and critically reflect upon the various aspects of one’s identity.
- apply one’s self-awareness of their biases to enact strategies to respond to unconscious and conscious biases. Paula/Rich
- practice skills including self-care strategies for experiences of bias, active listening, empathy and effective allyship. Anthony/Erik
- engage non-dominant perspectives with respect and empathy (Nayma, Carleigh, Mary)
- implement strategies to achieve equity”

Additional examples:

- Students will be able to identify how the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the implementation of these rules impact access to justice.
- Students will be able to critique the adversarial system for its ability to provide equitable access to justice.
- Using a relevant fact pattern, students will identify possible instances of implicit and explicit biases by the actors in the fact pattern and present effective strategies to respond to or avoid these biases.
- Students will be able to critique tort law as a system for providing equitable redress for personal injuries and for promoting social justice.
- Students will be able to identify instances of inequity in the valuation of damages and make persuasive arguments that promote equity.
- Students will be able to effectively employ strategies of active listening, empathy and effective allyship during classroom discussions and group work.

DISABILITY POLICY. SIU Carbondale is committed to providing an inclusive and accessible experience for all students with disabilities. Disability Support Services coordinates the implementation of accommodations. If you think you may be eligible for accommodations but have not yet obtained approval, please contact DSS immediately at 618-453-5738 or disabilityservices.siu.edu. You may request accommodations at any time, but timely requests help to ensure accommodations are in place when needed. Accommodations and services are determined through an interactive process with students and may involve consideration of specific course design and learning objectives in consultation with faculty. Please send approved accommodations to your faculty through the DSS online portal.

SALUKI CARES and COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES (CAPS). The purpose of Saluki Cares is to develop, facilitate and coordinate a university-wide program of care and support for students in any type of distress—physical, emotional, financial, or personal. By working closely with faculty, staff, students, and their families, SIU will continue to display a culture of care and demonstrate to our students and their families that they are an important part of the community. For Information on Saluki Cares: (618) 453-2461, or siucares@siu.edu, <https://salukicare.siu.edu/>. Associate Dean Angela Upchurch (aupchurch@siu.edu or (618) 536-8314) is available at the School of Law to help students access university resources. Additionally, counseling services are available through CAPS (Counseling and Psychological Services \(CAPS\) | Student Health Services | SIU). A counselor is at the law school every Wednesday from noon until 4:30pm in Room 268 for drop-in appointments.

SAFETY AWARENESS FACTS AND EDUCATION Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender is a Civil Rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, etc. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you can find the appropriate resources here: <http://safe.siu.edu>
