CIVIL PRACTICE LEGAL CLINIC
LAW 673 - SUMMER 2023 SYLLABUS

Faculty:

Assistant Professor Dale Aschemann
Legal Clinic - Room 177
Class – Room 164
1150 Douglas Drive
Phone: 618-534-1764 (cell)
Office phone: 618-536-4423; 618-453-8797
email: dale.aschemann@siu.edu

Office Hours: Monday thru Friday, 8:00-11:00 am and 1:00-4:00 pm when not in court or attending site visits. If you attend office hours for any reason (or if seeing Linda for any reason), please be equipped with a notebook and pen for notetaking purposes. We are here to assist you in every way we can and we expect you to have questions. Like a new attorney in a firm asking questions of a supervising attorney, though, you should first make a reasonable effort to determine the answer on your own. For instance, if you have a question about intestacy, I would expect you to ask that question after you’ve reviewed the Probate Act. This is not to discourage you from asking questions – again I welcome that – but trying to find the answer on your own is a practice skill you can begin working on here.

Course Objectives: See Clinic Missions and Goals for Students, Mission Statement, and Program Goals and Objectives located in Civil Practice Clinic Handbook (tab 2).

Clinic Student Assessment and Evaluation: See documents contained in the Civil Practice Clinic Materials.

LEGAL CLINIC STUDENTS REQUIRED TO ATTEND ALL CLASSES. Should you have a compelling reason and need to miss class, please discuss this with Professor Aschemann before missing the class.

CLASS MEETING TIME AND LOCATION: Tuesday and Thursday 11:15-12:30 in Room 164.

SUGGESTION ON READING ASSIGNMENTS: Please consider reading the first two weeks of assignments at the beginning of the semester rather than waiting until they are assigned. Then, prior to each class review the reading materials before we have the class discussion on that topic. Those reading assignments cover the most basic legal issues you’re likely to address in the clinic and you are likely to have clients with legal needs that are covered by these assignments. This is also a good way for you to get your clinic hours during first two weeks of the semester as you are attempting to schedule your clients for appointments.

STAFF MEETINGS: Each class will begin with a staff meeting. During staff meetings, we will discuss case assignments, legal issues, scheduling, and we will devote time to law office practice topics and special projects. If you encounter any issues or problems (scheduling, difficult client, etc.), please share that during the staff meeting. This presents a good opportunity to share experiences with your classmates and discuss options to address the issue.

CLASS EXPECTATIONS:

Students are expected to take notes during class. You may do this with a computer. If computers are present in the classroom, they are authorized exclusively for taking notes during the current class. Emailing, internet searches, doing other classwork, etc. is prohibited.

This class involves interaction with clients. Please dress appropriately when in their presence.

When you attend a site visit, you are required to take interview notes regardless of whether you are conducting the interview. Sharing your notes with the interviewer can be a great assistance.

In advance of client meetings, it is a best practice to print and closely proof documents the day before the meeting. Time management and attention to detail are key skills in this clinic.

You must email your time sheets to Dale Aschemann and Linda Clendenin by 4:00 p.m. on Friday each week. When you have a site visit on Friday afternoon, you may email your time sheet on the following Monday by 4:00 p.m. If you have not emailed your time sheets by the appropriate time, you are not entitled to credit for the time contained in the tardy timesheet. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS TO THIS RULE.
